

Karnatak Law Society's

Vishwanathrao Deshpande Institute of Technology, Haliyal

Department of Civil Engineering

REPORT

Department of civil engineering KLS VDIT has organised Workshop on “New Generation Building Materials and its Application” under Institution of Engineers, India IE(I) students chapter supported by UltraTech Cement Limited on 29th Feb, 2020 to 6th and 8th semester BE students.

Workshop commenced with formal welcome by HOD Department of Civil Engineering Prof. C K. Sridhar. Mr. Girish Pawar, TTSM Ultratech Cement limited with his subordinate took a chair of Resource person. Around 120 students, Practicing engineers, contractors, Cement dealers participated in this workshop.

Briefing out the UltraTech company details, Mr. Girish Pawar explained the list of construction products manufactured by the company and its application.

Points covered in the workshop

- Types of cement available in the market and its application.
- Demonstration of water proofing cement and also explained its method of application and its properties.
- Explained about weather+ cement and its application.
- New construction equipments used in concreting and pavement construction.
- Demonstration of joining of AAC blocks with 3mm thick, thin joining mortar- Fixoblock

Students gained the knowledge about new construction materials available in market and enjoyed the live demonstration, interacted about demand of products and present market price. Workshop concluded with vote of thanks by Prof. Laxmi G Hattiholi.

Karnatak Law Society's
Vishwanathrao Deshpande Institute of Technology, Haliyal
Department of Civil Engineering

